

United States District Court

DISTRICT OF SOUTH DAKOTA

SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN M. GEHRKE,
a/k/a John Walter Gehrke,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION

CASE NUMBER: CR. 05-40148

This matter came before the court for an initial appearance, arraignment and detention hearing on an Indictment in the above matter on Friday, January 13, 2006. The defendant, John M. Gehrke, appeared in person and by his counsel, Assistant Federal Public Defender Timothy Langley. The United States appeared by Assistant United States Attorney, Jeff Clapper.

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I - Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☒ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes that:

The defendant is charged in the Indictment with possession of a firearm by a prohibited person in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 922(g)(3). Defendant has been indicted by the grand jury so there is probable cause to believe that defendant has committed the offenses with which he is charged.

Based on the testimony of ATF Special Agent Frank Gonzales, the information contained in the pretrial services report, Defendant's history of violent offenses, and the charges contained in the Indictment, I find by clear and convincing evidence that there currently is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will reasonably assure the safety of other persons in the community.

In reaching these decisions, I have considered:

- (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense charged;
- (2) the weight of the evidence against the defendant;
- (3) the defendant's history and personal characteristics, including the defendant's character, physical and mental condition, family ties, employment, financial resources, length of residence in this community, community ties, past conduct, criminal history, as well as court appearance record; and
- (4) the nature and seriousness of the danger posed to other persons in the community if defendant were to be released.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
